v.	)
	)	STATEMENT OF

Pursuant to RAP 10.8, petitioner cites the following additional authority:

We have not overlooked the contention of appellants that an order of the court is not effective until formally entered by the clerk, citing State ex rel. Jensen v. Bell, 34 Wash. 185, 75 Pac. 641; but that and other cases which might be cited all go to the time when the right of appeal or other right begins or ends, or where it is contended that the court has announced one decision and the judgment as entered by the clerk recites another. The rule has never, so far as we are informed, been entertained as a defense in a contempt case where there is no conflict or question as to the order of the court. An order of injunction is binding from the time the party is informed thereof, and not, as in the case of affirmative orders, from the time of service. Rem. & Bal. Code, § 729; 22 Cyc. 1013–1014. If it were not so, it would be possible always to defeat the order of the court by performing the proscribed act while the formal order of the court was in process of preparation.

State v. Erickson, 66 Wash. 639, 641, 120 P. 104, 105-06 (1912), aff'd sub nom. Carlson v. State of Washington, 234 U.S. 103, 34 S. Ct. 717, 58 L. Ed. 1237 (1914).

DATED this 18th day of September, 2018.

Respectfully submitted,

NIELSEN, BROMAN & KOCH
