To Kevin March,

First off, thank you for working on my case. I really hope we can get some hard evidence on this case. I'm still very shocked and confused on the verdict of the jury. Isn't the judge suppose to be kind of a referee and call B.S. when it happens? I am going to run this by and see what you think. I bet it gives any different than how I say it... the record was altered, plain and simple. And from what I've seen of that county it wouldn't suprise me, especially when they asked for an extention to work on the transcripts. My mom used to do that for work... type up transcripts for court. Also, I'm going to give you some major background of what's really been going on. There are 3 different waves/forces/sources what ever you want to call them. I will separate them the best I can. All 3 of these things are so blended together. To separate them I will title them: One - Jury, two - County and the other - Mother-N-Law.

Jury — 99 percent of the trial pointed to me not committing the said crime. There was a rape kit or exam done on my daughter and it proved she was still a virgin and was never penetrated at anytime. Without penetration there can be no rape and no charge 1st degree. My daughter has never shown any signs or symtoms of rape, sexual or any other kind of abuse ever. Period! My ublic defender also questioned my daughter. He pointed out she had told this story 3 times and 3 totally different things happened. First it happened once at one address. Then the 2nd time it happened 3 times at 2 different addresses. And the 3rd time it happened twice at one address. This shows fabrication. See, my daughter takes after me that she is very smart and has a very good memory. She doesn't li She couldn't lie to save her life if she had to. That is how I know she lied. I will explain more in Mother-in-law.

My attorney interviewed the cops and they both admit that my so called admitions were all suggestions by them. I never volunteered anything until they suggested something and I sarcastidy said "yeah". Just prior to written statement... Based on another idea from one of the cops (Officer Unruh, gave me. He said, "I am the book, you are the ink." So, I wrote a story on them. So my "written statement" was a complete summary of all there suggestions. — I may have put my foot in my mouth. But I certaintly did not rape anyone.

County — I am no expert on law but I did get to peek at some law books while I was in county. I looked up extradition warrants and they all said they have up to 14 days to make a move and it took Skagit 66 days to come up with a warrant and another month on the road. So all in all it took them 96 days to get me to county. Also while I was in Kansas which is where this journey began. I was given a copy of the 22 page warrant on 5/17/12 at about 4:30 am. At first glance the story line of what they had in it would have been a first class, top priority top ten most wanted — hit him over the head, put a bag over his face, lear jet him to county before he wakes up, under heavy armed guards and escorted by F-22's. Then, I dug into it and read it closely and discovered that 99.9% of the warrant (especially now that the rape exam was introduced) was completely fabricated through and through and they know it was fabricated because they wrote it. And have the evidence the says I didn't do it. And as soon a I get to county they take my copy of the warrant away from me and told me if I want to see it again I have to go through my attorney. That was the first thing I asked my attorney and he said it doesn't matter what was in it and he would immediately change the subject 3 times on 3 different visits and would not let me see it. Judge Meyer also says "it doesn't matter how he got here. he's here now." Just moments before the 3.5 hearing. They all know they screwed up. My attorney says he has 30 years experience. They put this attorney on all the cases they screw up on to save and protect the county/state from lawsuits. He defended the public... not me. He does this to all of his clients. I took one piece of advice from him. He told me what to say on the stand... word for word. He told me the day before and 5 minutes prior to getting on the stand. So I did. Then after the verdict, he came to visit me and said the juriors deciding factor was what I said on the stand. He really did do very good up to that point, before he told me what to say. Then he put a stick in the road and tripped me. After 30 years experience he would know that. So the county is fully aware and fully knowing and willingly convicted an innocent man of a horrifing nightmare of a charge/charges and totally devestating a good family all in order to protect a lawsuit — Plain and Simple!

Mother-N-Law — Now the reason my wife and I went to Kansa to begin with was to rescue our daughter. First of all the MNL is extremely emotionally, mentally abusive, professional, pschopathic manipulator and will say and do anything to get what she want she also has a son that professionally Kills people for a living. He does the real life Jason Bourne stuff. I'm not sure if she would use that source, but it is available. So with all that mental abuse she takes it out the most on my wife. There relationship s just like a full out battered wife syndrome. Anyway, while we were living in Skagit, my wife and daughter took what was suppose to be a 5 day trip to Topeka, KS to visit MNL. Two days in to the trip my wife calls to check in and tells me MNL made her pull our daughter out of school in MTVernon, WA and is now enrolled in Topeka - with the plans at the end of the school year to take her to Vietnam and abandon her to strangers. (In nother true story - she has done this before, we had 3 children and she got them over there and adopted 2 of them out which they live in Endianapolis now and I had to send a friend over to Vietnam to pick my daughter up because I can't leave the country)

III

Anyway - 3days later my wife gets back. So we do every thing to raise money - garage sale, barrow from anyone we could, panhandle. We drive over to Topeka from MT Vernon, WA and she gave us a 2 day window to have our daughter with us before she left. I did not give her back. No there are no custody issues. The MNL had plane tickets for 3 I believe Two - round trips and One 1-way. We find out later that she told my daughter they were going on a vacation for a couple of weeks. She really was going to drop her off with some people and in a couple weeks turn her back and get on the plane without her. The tickets were for 6-22-11. A little while later she gets a call from the FBI in regards to the 6-22-11 trip - yet I have no clue what she or they said. This woman has hated me with a major passion since the day she heard about me and has been nonstop harnessing the beast out of us. You know the saying? You will know a tree by its fruit? Well the whole discovery I got in Skagit is saturated in the fruits of my MNL if you know where to look. I brought some of it out to my attorney and he said it doesn't matter and he will not pursue it.

I have no doubt what so ever that she is the back bone to this entire case. Somehow she has pressured, and or blackmailed or has manipulated my daughter into saying what she said. I could pick out all the fruit of my MNL in mine and your some that's not even in the discovery. Yes she would fully do something like this and enjoy everything about it. And she has done so in retaliation of stopping her plans of shipping my daughter off. Because that is what she does. She has tried this sort of thing to me before, no where near to this extent. The judge saw right through it and threw it out. This was the only successful one.

Here is a little more taste of what she is like and keep in mind this is just a glimmer. Whenever my wife would get together with this woman 8 out of 10 times she would come back totally hysterical. Oh - my wife is emotionally traumatized, in a 6th month period when she was 10 she watched both her parents die. Then almost immediatly was brutally beaten and raped repeatedly over a 7 month period by her brother-N-Law. So this case alone is stabbing my wife the most. Right now she thinks I did this. Anyway back to the hysterical part... it would take me 2 hours to calm her down. One time she stabbed her husband in the hand with a pair of scissors trying to cut off his beard in his sleep that he woke up to. Later on she tells one of her son's she will kill herself if dad doesn't cut off his beard. Another time my wife got raped by her cousin and she told mom and she told her to shut up, don't bother because she won't embarrass the family name and she probably egged it on anyway. Another time the MIL got my wife a job where she worked at the time and at a staff meeting she told them she was sexually abused and raped as a child... just out of the blue, just to embarrass and shame her. Another time, when she had just been adopted by this family the MIL took all her old belongings from her real family: toys, stuff ~~and~~ an[illegible]s pictures of them. And tossed all of that out and said you don't need any of this stuff because we are your family now. There is the glimmer

So with the Jury - County - Mother-N-Law is there anything we can do about this? It's like 3 separate tsnami's coming at me and all hit me in the middle at the same time perfectly blended together. Skagit Kept telling me nothing can be done about it. I don't Know what to do

This whole thing is wrong everything about it This is the highest level of the most vilest dirty corruption (Skagit County). There has to be something that can be done. My opinion the court erred by picking this case up to begin with — then allowing it to happen the way it did. And Skagit does this to everyone that comes into there court room.

What do you think?! Please help!!!
