

Washington State Law Library

The Washington State Law Library acts as a key component in the administration of justice by ensuring access to legal information. The State Law Library serves a vital function by providing access to legal information resources for the judicial branch, the legislative and executive branches of state and local government, and the citizens of the State.

The State Law Library serves as a legal research library for the Supreme Court, the Court of Appeals, the Legislature, the Governor's Office, the Office of the Attorney General and all state employees. Publications are loaned throughout the state, and the library's internet reference and instant messaging provide a wealth of information to individuals unable to personally visit the library.

The State Law Library stands as a state treasure, valuable not only for the collection itself but also for the added value that the staff bring to the Library's core mission of providing legal research services. State Law Library staff perform at a consistent level of excellence, providing users with legal information in formats suitable to their requests and needs.
