

301 Purpose and Procedure

301.1. The Certified Professional Guardianship and Conservatorship Board (Board) may issue written ethics advisory opinions for Certified Professional Guardian and Conservators (Guardian and Conservators) and Certified Professional Guardian and Conservator Agencies (Agencies).

301.2 Any Guardian and Conservator, Agency, or Board member may request in writing that the Board issue an ethics advisory opinion regarding the application of the Standards of Practice to a specific factual circumstance.

301.3 A request for an ethics advisory opinion is confidential and not public information.
