

Guardianship and Conservatorship Program Regulations

605 Technical Changes

A technical change to a regulation is one which corrects a clerical mistake or an error arising from oversight or omission. The Board may adopt, amend, or repeal a regulation for the purpose of making a technical change to the regulations without following the procedures set forth in these regulations.