NO. 89900-2
PETITIONER'S STATEMENT TO
THE COURT ON RESPONDENT'S
FAILURE TO FILE AN ANSWER
TO PETITION FOR DISCRETIONARY
REVIEW

COMES NOW Ignacio Cobos, the petitioner, In Propria Persona, and hereby makes the following statement to the the court on respondent's "failure" to file an answer to petition for discretionary review.

On March 21, 2014, I sent a letter to Mr. D. Angus Lee and Ms. Carole L. Highland, about not having received, yet, an answer to the petition, and asked them to serve me with a copy of the answer if they were going to file one, and asked for consideration for a timely review of my case. See Attachment "A" On April 4, 2014, I sent a second letter to Mr. Lee and Ms. Highland, informing them that I had not received a copy of an answer, and pointed out that in my eyes, they had knowingly, intelligently, and voluntarily, waived their right to file one, and asked them to be polite and inform this court that they were not filing one. See Attachment "B"

Based on the foregoing, I hereby respectfully request from this Honorable Court to accept review of the above-captioned matter, based on the arguments made in the petition, and respondent's no objection/answer to petition.

DATED THIS 17th day of April, 2014.

Respectfully submitted,
Ignacio Cobos

RE: State of Washington vs. Ignacio Cobos
Superior Court No. 12-1-00445-0
Court of Appeals No. 30658-5-III
Supreme Court No. 89900-2

Dear Mr. Lee and Ms. Highland:

I am directing this letter with the purpose to inform you that I have not received the Answer to my Petition for Discretionary Review, which was due on March 15, 2014.

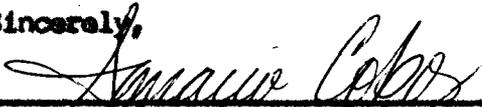

I have checked the case docket on the Supreme Court's website and no new entries since the letter dated February 13, 2014, informing us of the Supreme Court cause number, and the requirements of RAP 13.4(d), therefore, I hereby respectfully request to serve me with a copy of the answer, if you are going to file one or have file one, and it does not show on the case docket yet.

I clearly understand that it is your decision on whether to file one or not, however, I hereby respectfully request from you to not hold this matter back, as I believe that I am entitled to a timely process of my petition.

Thank you for your time and consideration in this matter.

IN ACCORDANCE WITH 28 USC § 1746, I declare that I mailed this letter on March 21, 2014.

Sincerely,

Ignacio Cobos

RE: State of Washington vs. Ignacio Cobos
Superior Court No. 12-1-00445-0
Court of Appeals No. 30658-5-III
Supreme Court No. 89900-2

Dear Mr. Lee, and Ms. Highland:

I have not received a answer to my petition for discretionary review, and you had until March 15, 2014, to do so, therefore, in my eyes you have knowingly, intelligently, and voluntarily, waived your right to file an answer, however, as both of you are officers of the court, I heraby respectfully request from either one of you, to have the courtesy of informing the court that your officia will not be opposing my petition for review.

Thank you for your time and consideration in this matter.

IN ACCORDANCE WITH 28 USC § 1746, I declare that I mailed this letter on April 4, 2014.

Sincerely,

Ignacio Cobos
