Re: Supreme Court No. 90989-0 Guardianship of Dorothy May Kertis
Dianna Parish v. Terry L. Kertis
Court of Appeals No. 70909-7-1

Dear Ms. Carlson:

Thank you for your letter dated February 2, 2015. You had requested a response from me and opposing counsel, Nancy Preg, as to the status of Ms. Dorothy May Kertis and whether this case is moot.

Ms. Kertis passed away on December 8, 2014.

Mr. Kertis had petitioned for review of the appellate court's affirmation of the trial court's refusal to terminate or modify a protection order that governed his visits with Ms. Kertis. Because Ms. Kertis has passed away, the protection order, insofar as it applied to Ms. Kertis, was terminated as a matter of law. That being the case, a decision from the Supreme Court would have no practical effect because the issue has ceased to exist. In my view, this case is moot.

Cordially,

Dewey W. Weddle
