JUAN MARTINEZ CASILLAS,)
Appellant.)

Additional Ground 1

It is clear that the Supreme Court of Justice does not find a person guilty when there are stolen objects and firearms in the trunk of a car. It is clear that I, Juan Martinez, have no connection whatsoever with the telephone that was found in the car, nor with the people or person who might have committed such acts. I was also a victim of such acts as far as the bicycle, since I, Juan Martinez, only acquired the vehicle, but I didn't know of its origin.

Additional Ground 2

There is a witness who supposedly saw me at the house where the theft took place, who was the neighbor, and he saw that I, Juan Martinez, was only going there to do an estimate for a cleaning job, and when no one came out of the house, I left, and I was never inside the house. The case about the store robberies/thefts--I have never been to those stores, and I have never frequented them. Thanks.

STATEMENT OF ADDITIONAL GROUNDS FOR REVIEW

I, Juan Martinez Casillas have received and reviewed the opening brief prepared by my attorney. Summarized below are the additional grounds for review that are not addressed in that brief. I understand the Court will review this Statement of Additional Grounds for Review when my appeal is considered on the merits.

Additional Ground 1

que da claro que la Corte Suprema de justicia no declara culpable a una persona cuando en el baul de un auto se encuentran adjetas robadas o armas de fuego.
Esta claro que yo Juan Martinez no tengo ninguna conexcion con el telefono en contrado, en el auto, ni con las personas o la persona que pudo haber cometido tales actos.
la bicicleta yo tambien fui victima de tales actos pues yo Juan M solo adquiri la bicicleta pero no sabia su procedencia.

Additional Ground 2

Existe un testigo que supuesta mente me vio en la casa del Robo que fue el vecino y el Vio que yo Juan Martinez solo iba a tomar Estingado para realizar un trabajo de limpieza y al no salir nadie del Ho me retire y nunca estuve dentro de la casa. El caso de los Robos en las tiendas no conosco las tiendas ni nunca las e frecuentado. thar

If there are additional grounds, a brief summary is attached to this statement.
