This bill would allow the Office Consumer Protection at the Attorney General to respond to bad faith patent infringement letters . Providing definitions and asserting that a person may not make assertions of patent infringement in bad faith .

Section 3 of the bill sets forth items of information that courts may consider when reviewing a claim of bad faith patent infringement activities.

Section 4 authorizes the Attorney General to bring an action to enforce the provisions of the bill .

II. B - Cash Receipts Impact

None are expected.

II. C - Expenditures

There may be small impacts on the courts for hearing cases filed by the Attorney General under the bill . The complexity and frequency of any cases is not known.

The Office of the Attorney General estimates two enforcement activities per fiscal year beginning July 1 , 2015. It is not clear whether these would lead to court cases.

Any court costs associated with this are indeterminate but expected to be well below $50,000 for court time and support staff time.
