Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact on the Courts

A new section would be added to RCW 7.21 that would entirely phase out the use of juvenile detention as a remedy for contempt of a valid court order by July 1, 2019. After this date, no youth would be committed to juvenile detention as a contempt sanction under RCW 13.32A, RCW 13.34 or RCW 28A.225, nor may a warrant be issued under these chapters for failure to appear at a court hearing that requires commitment of a youth to juvenile detention. Until July 1, 2019, any youth committed to juvenile detention as a sanction for contempt under the above mentioned RCWs must be detained in such a manner so that no direct communication or physical contact may be made between the youth and any youth who is detained to juvenile detention pursuant to a violation of criminal law .

RCW 7.21.030, RCW 13.32A.250, RCW 28A.225.090 and RCW 43.185C.260 would be amended to strike the sections that allow commitment to juvenile detention for a period of time not to exceed seven days. This sanction may be imposed in addition to, or as an alternative to, any other remedial sanction authorized by this chapter. This remedy is specifically determined to be a remedial sanction.

There is no impact to the courts.
