Part II: Narrative Explanation

RCW 10.31.100 would be amended to clarify when an officer can arrest a sixteen or seventeen year old child at the request of the parent or guardian for domestic violence.

Part II.A – Brief Description of what the Measure does that has fiscal impact on the Courts

This amended version of the bill would make the following changes to the previous version:

- (1) Would remove the requirement that a police officer arrest a sixteen or seventeen year old if the officer has probable cause to believe the child has assaulted a family (or household) member in the last four hours when the arrest is requested by a parent or guardian.
- (2) Would remove the requirement that a juvenile detention facility must book into detention any person under the age of eighteen brought to that detention facility regarding a domestic violence assault arrest.

No fiscal impact to the courts.
