Part II: Narrative Explanation

This bill would prohibit courts from postponing an offender's restitution payments until after the offender is released from total confinement. The bill would provide that an offender's inability to make restitution payments while in total confinement cannot be a violation of the offender's sentence unless the inability to pay resulted from a refusal to accept, or termination from, Class I or Class II Correctional Industries employment.

Part II.A – Brief Description of what the Measure does that has fiscal impact on the Courts

Section 1 would amend RCW 9.94A.750 and Section 2 would amend RCW 9.94A.753 to provide that a court shall not issue any order that postpones the commencement of restitution payments until after an offender is released from total confinement, and that an offender's inability to make restitution payments while in total confinement may not be the basis for a sentence violation unless the inability to make payments resulted from a refusal to accept an employment offer, or is terminated from employment.

II.B - Cash Receipt Impact

None.

II.C – Expenditures

Court education would be required. This would be managed within existing resources.
