Part II: Narrative Explanation

This bill would establish processes whereby services, who are acting on the behalf of the beneficiary of a trust deed after default, can enter abandoned residential property to secure and maintain it.

This bill differs from 2ESHB 2057:

- Would clarify the written notice of default for residential real property shall be transmitted by the beneficiary to the borrower; and
- Would correct a statutory reference for foreclosure notices on a commercial loan.

Part II.A – Brief Description of what the Measure does that has fiscal impact on the Courts

No fiscal impact to the courts.
