Part II: Narrative Explanation

This bill would authorize a district court to issue an ex parte temporary order for protection outside of normal court hours based on a law enforcement officer's sworn petition and testimony.

Part II.A – Brief Description of what the Measure does that has fiscal impact on the Courts

RCW 26.50.070 would be amended to allow a district court to issue an ex parte temporary order for protection outside of normal court hours based on a law enforcement officer's sworn petition and testimony by telephone that irreparable injury could result from domestic violence if an order is not issued without prior notice to the respondent.

The process would be similar to the process for issuing search warrants so judges could be contacted at any hour of the day or night. It is not known how often the telephone requests would be made but it is assumed the cost to the courts would be under $50,000.

II.B - Cash Receipt Impact

No cash receipt impact.
