Part II: Narrative Explanation

This bill would classify assault in the fourth degree as a class C felony where sexual motivation has been plead and proven after the effective date of this bill, and where the person has two or more prior adult convictions within ten years for certain offenses where sexual motivation has been plead and proven.

This bill would include the crime of indecent exposure as a class C felony, if a person exposes themselves to another person and has been convicted of indecent exposure, a sex offense, or a municipal or out-of-state offense comparable to indecent exposure or a sex offense.

Part II.A – Brief Description of what the Measure does that has fiscal impact on the Courts

Section 1(4) – Would amend RCW 9A.36.041 to classify Assault in the Fourth Degree, where sexual motivation was pleaded and proven, as a class C felony if the person has two or more prior adult convictions within ten years for any of the following offenses where sexual motivation was pleaded and proven:

- (a) Assault in the fourth degree;
- (b) Assault in the third degree;
- (c) Assault in the second degree;
- (d) Assault in the first degree;
- (e) A municipal offense comparable to an offense under (a) through (d), or
- (f) An out-of-state offense comparable to an offense under (a) through (d).

Section 2 – Would amend RCW 9A.88.010 to include the crime of indecent exposure if a person exposes themselves to another person and has been convicted of indecent exposure, a sex offense, or a municipal or out-of-state offense comparable to indecent exposure or a sex offense.

II.B - Cash Receipt Impact

None.

II.C – Expenditures

Indeterminate. There may be additional filings as a result of this bill, but court impact is expected to be minimal.

Law tables would need to be updated, and court education required. This would be managed within existing resources.
