Part II: Narrative Explanation

This bill would remove the ability for a person to contest the sealed hearings and exempts dismissals of a deferred disposition from being immediately sealed upon acquittal or dismissal with prejudice.

Part II.A – Brief Description of what the Measure does that has fiscal impact on the Courts

RCW 13.50.260 would be amended to not allow the ability for a person to contest the sealed hearings. It would also exempt dismissals of a deferred disposition under RCW 13.40.127 from being immediately sealed upon acquittal or dismissal with prejudice. The court would have discretion of sealing a case involving a juvenile that was convicted of any serious violent offense as defined in RCW 9.94A.030, rape in the second degree, or indecent liberties with forcible compulsion after ten years and other requirements.

Any changes to documents or to the system will occur within current resources at AOC. There is no additional impact to the courts.
