Part II: Narrative Explanation

This bill would amend RCW 9A.68A.050 to modify crimes regarding depictions of a minor engaged in sexually explicit conduct.

The bill would require the Washington Coalition of Sexual Assault programs, in consultation with the Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the Washington Association for the Treatment of Sexual Abusers, the Department of Children, Youth, and Families, the Washington Association of Prosecuting Attorneys, representatives from public defense, and other stakeholders to convene a workgroup to make recommendations to the legislature regarding age-appropriate prevention and intervention strategies to address potential harms caused by exchange of sexually explicit images by minors.

Part II.A – Brief Description of what the Measure does that has fiscal impact on the Courts

Section 1(4) – Would amend RCW 9A.68A.050 to provide that any minor who knowingly distributes, transfers, disseminates, or exchanges a visual or printed matter that depicts any other minor over the age of twelve engaged in an act of sexually explicit conduct would be guilty of a misdemeanor.

II.B - Cash Receipt Impact

None.

II.C – Expenditures

The law tables would need to be updated, and court education required. This would be managed within existing resources.
