Part II: Narrative Explanation

This bill would amend the crime of bail jumping requiring that the defendant receive written notice of the personal appearance before any court could find the defendant guilty of bail jumping. This bill would also amend the crime of bail jumping to a gross misdemeanor or misdemeanor depending on the severity of the original crime.

Part II.A – Brief Description of what the Measure does that has fiscal impact on the Courts

Section 1(1) – Would require any person released by court order or admitted to bail receive written notice of the requirement of a subsequent personal appearance before any court or the requirement to report to correctional facility for service of sentence, and those who fail to appear or surrender for service of sentence as required guilty of bail jumping.

Section 1(3)(a) – Would make bail jumping a gross misdemeanor if the person was held for, charged with or convicted of a felony and a misdemeanor if the person was held for, charged with, or convicted of a gross misdemeanor or misdemeanor.

II.B - Cash Receipt Impact

None

II.C – Expenditures

There would be law table impact, would reduce the number of cases in superior court, and increase the number in district or municipal court. These impacts would be managed within existing resources.
