Part II: Narrative Explanation

This bill would expand the eligibility criteria for Parenting Sentencing Alternative (PSA) and Community Parenting Alternative (CPA) by modifying the restrictions on criminal history, immigration status, and types of qualifying familial relationships.

The bill would modify requirements and procedures for applications to the PSA and CPA involving open and prior child welfare cases.

The bill would authorize a court to impose up to an additional six months of community custody for a participant in the PSA when modifying conditions or imposing sanctions.

Part II.A – Brief Description of what the Measure does that has fiscal impact on the Courts

Section 2(9)(b) – Would provide that at the commencement of a hearing, a court shall advise the person sentenced under this section of the person's right to assistance of counsel and appoint counsel if the person is indigent.

Section 2(9)(c) – Would provide that if the offender is brought back into court, the court may modify the conditions of community custody or impose sanctions including extending the length of participation in the alternative program, by no more than six months. The court shall also consider modification to the participant's support and rehabilitation plan as needed.

II.B - Cash Receipt Impact

None.

II.C – Expenditures

Judicial education would be required. Felony Judgment and Sentencing form (parenting sentencing alternative) would need to be modified. These impacts would be managed within existing resources.
