Part II: Narrative Explanation

This bill would acknowledge commercially sexually exploited children as victims not criminals, and would authorize law enforcement to take exploited children into custody for purposes of delivering them to a service provider and investigate those who may be exploiting them.

The bill would amend RCW 9A.88.030 to restrict the crime of prostitution to those over the age of 18.

The bill would amend diversion requirements in juvenile courts under RCW 13.40.070 and 213 to remove the offense of prostitution.

Part II.A – Brief Description of what the Measure does that has fiscal impact on the Courts

II.B - Cash Receipt Impact

None.

II.C – Expenditures

Judicial education would be required. This would be managed within existing resources.
