Part II: Narrative Explanation

This bill would amend RCW 18.155, adding a definition for “qualified supervisor” in the context of sex offender treatment providers, and details professional qualifications and work experience required.

The bill would amend RCW 18.155.030 and 18.155.075 to replace “certified sex offender treatment provider” with “qualified supervisor” and 18.155.080 adding more detail to standards and procedures for approval, directing specific circumstances under which an applicant must be approved, including detailed criteria for out of state applicants.

The bill would allow applicants to attest to training requirement completion rather than submit proof, unless requested.

The bill would create the “Sexual Offender Treatment Provider Advisory Committee”, a permanent body that would require participation by one superior court judge. Terms of committee participation would be defined as six years in duration and the Committee would tasked with providing advice to the Department of Social and Health Services regarding standards, individual applications, maintaining the pool of treatment providers, and reforms needed. Travel expenses for committee members would be reimbursed.

Part II.A – Brief Description of what the Measure does that has fiscal impact on the Courts

II.B - Cash Receipt Impact

None.

II.C – Expenditures

This bill would require a superior court judge to participate as a member of the newly created committee. Participation in the Committee would be permanent. Travel costs for participation in the committee would be reimbursed. It is assumed there would be at least two committee meetings per year. Travel costs are estimated at $5,000 per year.
