Part II: Narrative Explanation

This bill would expand public contracting opportunities for women and minority business owners by increasing the regulatory oversight and accountability of the Office of Minority and Women's Business Enterprises.

The impacts to the courts remain the same in this bill as they were in the prior version.

Part II.A – Brief Description of what the Measure does that has fiscal impact on the Courts

Section 4(4)(b) – Would allow for the director or the director's designee to administer oaths, and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any documentation the director or director designee that is determined relevant to the inquiry.

Section 4(4)(c) – Subpoenas issued under this section may be enforced under RCW 34.05.588 in the Superior Court of any county where the hearing is conducted.

Section 5(1) – Would allow the director or director designee to apply for and obtain a Superior Court order approving a subpoena in advance of its issuance. The application can be made in the county where the person resides, or the county where the subpoenaed documents, or evidence is located in or in Thurston County.

Section 5(2) – Would require the court issue an order approving the subpoena when the application under this section is made to the satisfaction for the court.

Section 5(3) – Would allow for the director or director designee to seek approval and the court may issue an order without prior notice to any, including the person to whom the subpoena is directed and the person who is the subject of the investigations.

II.B - Cash Receipt Impact

None

II.C – Expenditures

There would be a change in the published legislative changes master answer list for the Superior Court. No significant impact to court operations. These impacts would be managed within existing resources.
