Part II: Narrative Explanation

This bill would require the appointment of a “transition team” to facilitate the success of certain civil commitment patients upon release to the community following the dismissal of criminal charges. The bill would extend certain minimum requirements for less restrictive alternative treatment to persons committed pursuant to criminal insanity laws which are established in law for other committed persons. The bill would require behavioral health administrative services organizations to collect information related to less restrictive alternative treatment and provide notifications.

Part II.A – Brief Description of what the Measure does that has fiscal impact on the Courts

Minor forms impact. Judicial education would be required. These impacts would be managed within existing resources.
