Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact on the Courts

The second substitute bill would not have any fiscal impacts that are different than previous versions of the bill.

The bill would amend RCW 13.34.080 removing responsibility from court clerks for publishing notice of summons or notice in dependency or termination proceedings and places it to the petitioner. If the petitioner is a minor, the Office of Civil Legal Aid will cover the publication cost and if the petitioner is an indigent parent or legal guardian, the Office of Public Defense will cover the cost.

New Section 2

This section contains a null and void clause for June 30, 2023.

New Section 3

This second substitute bill takes effect January 1, 2024.

II. B - Cash Receipts Impact

None

II. C - Expenditures

No fiscal impact is expected to the Administrative Office of the Courts. The petitioner in dependency and termination cases is almost always the State of Washington. The bill would result in less expenditures for the Superior Courts, estimated at $346,019 across the state, as they would no longer be responsible for the publishing costs.
