Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact on the Courts

This bill relates to refining victim's rights in all cases, not just felony and domestic violence cases. This bill adds 3 provisions that shall be considered with reasonable effort related to victims, survivors of victims, and witnesses of crimes in any criminal or juvenile proceeding:

Section 1(15):

The victim's safety is to be considered during bail determinations.

Section 1(16):

The court may consider written input of the victim or the family of the victim when the court is setting the trial date so long as the input does not impair the right of state to put on effective prosecution or defense to present effective defense. If a trial cannot be set in a reasonable time frame, the court shall provide explanation for the delay.

Section 1(17):

The victims are to be informed of victim notification services that may be available.

Section 2:

The legislature intends to provide funding to Office of Crime Victims Advocacy to support crime victims and prosecutors.
