Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact on the Courts

This substitute bill modifies multiple definitions; bars earned wage access (EWA) providers from charging subscription or membership fee to access such services; decreases the transaction fee cap to $5; precludes providers from making tipping automated or default option for transactions and from setting minimum tip amount; authorizes Department of Financial Institutions (DFI) to suspend license of individual licensees who are violating child support orders; permits DFI to impose fees to cover cost of program; and clarifies bill’s definition of “employer” includes local, state, and federal government entities.

The substitute would not make any changes affecting the fiscal impact to the Administrative Office of the Courts or the courts.
