Bill # 1218 2S HB

Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact on the Courts

The second substitute amends sections. 4 and 5 requiring the court to dismiss the proceedings when the parties can't agree on an appropriate diversion program and prescribing steps the prosecuting attorney must then take to determine whether a compelling state interest exists for competency restoration. It also requires the court to make written findings of any hearing conducted under the subsection and adds a null & void clause.

This second substitute bill retains the same court impacts as the original bill but adds no more.

II. B - Cash Receipts Impact

None

II. C - Expenditures

This bill would have minimal fiscal impact to the Administrative Office of the Courts.
