Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact on the Courts

This substitute bill requires the Department of Licensing to develop rules for maximum rates for reimbursement and establish a work group.

The substitute would not make any changes affecting the fiscal impact to the Administrative Office of the Courts or the courts. The original bill creates a new program to compensate registered tow truck operators for private property impounds or impounds at the direction of law enforcement, when the vehicle is the property of someone who is indigent. Unless the vehicle is impounded following the vehicle owner being arrested by law enforcement.

Section 1: details the creation of the program, who it applies to, and the process by which a person can partake in this program.

Section 2 and 3: are amended to reference the program created in Section 1.
