Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact on the Courts

This bill adds a chapter to Title 19 RCW mandating providers of online services, products or features likely to be accessed by minors to comply with specified requirements concerning privacy, collection and use of personal information, notifications, and parental consent.

Section 11 details that noncompliance with these measures is a consumer protection act violation.

II. B - Cash Receipts Impact

None

II. C - Expenditures

Indeterminate. Section 11 will increase court workloads to the extent consumer protection act claims brought for bill violations, and the increase could be significant as the bill imposes numerous duties on providers which could be violated. The Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC) has no data available to estimate the number of violations that would be filed because of this bill.
