

Freedom to speak includes both the right to speak freely and the right to refrain from speaking at all. Payments in support of speech are not permitted unless affirmatively consented to in advance. The right to eschew association for expressive purposes is also protected. Janus v American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees, Council 31, et.al., 138 S.Ct.2448 (2018)

WSBA Activity	Authority	Regulatory Purpose	Protection of the Public	Improvement of the Legal Profession (Attorney Skills)	Improvement of the Legal Profession (Justice Goals)	Other Purpose	Affirmative Consent to Pay Fee	Recommendation, if any
Admissions	Admission to Practice Rule (APR) 1
Discipline	APR 3,5, 6, 9
Continuing Education	APR 11, GR 12
Client Protection	APR 15, ELC 7.7, GR12
Court Rules	Wash. Const. Art. IV
Pro Bono/ Public Service e.g (Moderate Means, Call to Duty)	GR 12
Legislation	GR 12
ATJ Board	ATJB Order, GR 12
Sections	GR 12
Committee for Diversity	GR 12

Freedom to speak includes both the right to speak freely and the right to refrain from speaking at all. Payments in support of speech are not permitted unless affirmatively consented to in advance. The right to eschew association for expressive purposes is also protected. Janus v American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees, Council 31, et.al., 138 S.Ct.2448 (2018)

Other bar activities that do/do not trigger Janus issues e.g NWLawyer, Member Services, etc.
--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--