(TRTMP) Temporary Residential Time
Military Parent

I. Basis

This matter came before the court on the requesting party's motion for temporary residential time re military parents pursuant to RCW 26.09.260(11), (12).

The court finds that the requesting party is a military parent who received temporary duty, deployment, activation, or mobilization orders from the military, which orders interfere with that parent's abilities to perform parenting functions under a temporary or permanent parenting plan signed by the court on (date) _____.

- The military parent requested the court to delegate the ability to exercise residential time or visitation rights to:
 - the child(ren)'s family member (name and relationship to the child(ren)) _____
 - another person (name of person) _____ whom the court finds has a close and substantial relationship to the child(ren).

The delegation of residential time or visitation rights is in the best interest of the child(ren).

- Other:

II. Order

The court temporarily modifies the parenting plan as follows:

delegates the military parent's residential time or visitation rights to (name) _____, as follows:

Other:

This order remains in effect no later than 10 days after the parent returning from military duty provides notice to the temporary custodian.
