Subject: Opposing the change to RPC 1.15A

I am writing to oppose the change to RPC 1.15A. I am not a lawyer, but I learned of this issue through a friend who is a lawyer. I'm shocked that the public was not at all involved in the process that led to the publication of this proposed rule. How can the public have confidence in the lawyer discipline system if it is all but excluded from the rulemaking procedure? I read Barrie Althoff's letter (dated June 19, 2007) urging the court to reject the proposed rule. I agree with everything Mr. Althoff has to say.

Sincerely,

Robert Levinson
