RE: Court Rule CrRLJ 4.1

While the proposed Court Rule may well incorporate some noble intentions, its implementation would very likely produce just the opposite effect. Idealized 'solutions' often lack a connection with reality and Court Rule CrRLJ 4.1 is one of these.

The egregious burden placed on local jurisdictions and especially small jurisdictions is drastically out of proportion to the extremely minimal benefits predicted.

We strongly urge you to reconsider and rescind proposed Court Rule CrRLJ 4.1.

Respectfully submitted,
