Subject: General Rule 15 - Sealing of court records

Clerk of the Supreme Court of Washington State April 30, 2014

Comment: It remains in the general public interest that there is maximum openness to court records. Do not allow the sealing of court and public records that lets us know what has transpired in the public sphere. As voters we need access to legal actions and decisions that allow us to be informed citizens.

Respectfully, Clark H. Petersen
