Subject: Comment on proposed APR Rule 11 change

Dear Ms. Triboulet,

This is to comment on the proposed changes to APR Rule 11 currently before the Supreme Court and its Rules committee.

I have been involved with this subject and with CLE's for many years, as a presenter, as a person in charge of planning and presenting, and of course countless times as a CLE student. I have also worked with and about many court rules during my career, as a drafter, as a commenter, as a participant in committees or other groups developing court rules, and as an interpreter of court rules as a judge, as a senior assistant attorney general, and as a lawyer in private practice, and as an adviser to or member of committees and workgroups relating to the practice of law.

I have carefully studied the proposed changes to APR 11 and thought carefully about their practical application and effects as well as their propriety, intent and values.

I strongly recommend the approval and adoption of the proposed changes as presented.
