Subject: Proposed Changes to Criminal Court Rules

To whom it may concern,

I adopt in full the points raised by Mr. Dan Satterberg, King County Prosecuting Attorney, in his letter of April 19, 2019. The principle of separation of powers is at play here, with the Court proposing rules that would greatly affect the executive branch without the benefit of adequate debate, study, testimony, or other measures to assess the cost and efficacy of the proposed changes.

I urge the Court to reject the proposed changes to the criminal rules.

Thank you,

Deric Martin
