For you.

Subject: Support for changes to APR 3

To Whom it May Concern:

I support the proposed changes to APR 3 allowing limited licensure of military spouse attorneys in Washington. I am concerned that US military families are subjected to heavy burdens from frequent moves around the world, and military spouses who want to practice law face the challenge of taking multiple bar examinations in new states for each move. Anything Washington can do to support military family professional licensure I support. The changes to APR 3 will help bring Washington in line with the 33 other states that adjust military spouse licensure.

Attorney admission by motion has helped contribute to the growth of the legal profession and its diversity, and an expansion to include military spouses will further help reduce the legal needs going unmet in Washington state. This is a benefit for all residents.

I am an attorney licensed in Washington since 2011.

Thank you,
Jenna Wolfe
