The timeline now in effect was never the way I expected to become an LLLT. Your decision to sunset the LLLT program has been detrimental to my education and wellbeing. There is no joy in my college experience if you could even call this a college experience. I've become constrained to the timeline instituted by your decision, limiting my ability to expand my education beyond the requirements of an LLLT. My time is so consumed meeting these requirements that I lost the ability to serve my community as a volunteer, and my days are full of doubt and stress that your decision will leave me ill-prepared to practice as an LLLT.

Did the court consider the human impact of their decision? We are students with dreams of future careers. We are citizens of this state concerned with access to justice. We are the people you have been elected to serve. While reconsidering your decision to sunset the LLLT program, I urge you to think of us, THE PEOPLE.

Respectfully,

Anna M. Casey
