Dear Supreme Court Justices:

“The elimination of the LLLT license, which was created to address access to justice across income and race, is a step backward in this critical work. It is not the time for closing the doors to justice but, instead, for opening them wider.” - former Chief Justice Barbara Madsen

Rather than killing off this program, it is one that should be continued and nurtured so that any challenges encountered in the program that could have negative impacts on people's lives can be addressed. People certainly need low-cost options for legal advice and services. Filling that need can help address class, racial, and ethnic injustices. Please take action to support and empower this program to be the best that it can be.

Sincerely,
Dena Jensen
