Dear Supreme Court of Washington Justices,

I was dismayed to hear that the LLLT program is coming to an end, but heartened to hear that it still may be salvaged.

Why would you allow the narrowing of LLLT scope or elimination of the LLLT licensure at a time when many of our state's citizens are suffering financially and could benefit from this program?

It is more important than ever to help our disadvantaged fellow citizens gain justice and the benefit of counsel that others of us can easily afford.

Respectfully,

Ellen Scherb
