Good morning,

I'm writing to urge you to keep the LLLT and expand it's reach outside Family Practice. I'm a retired Air Force officer and current high school history teacher. I planned to become a paralegal after I retire from teaching. I've been volunteering with legal services for undocumented immigrants, getting training from Catholic Charities. It doesn't take a lawyer to help immigrants to fill out paperwork, understand the requirements for a path to a Green Card, or help get their kids in school. I'm angry that you and the state's lawyers are petty as to take away help that is desperately needed.
