

From: OFFICE RECEPTIONIST, CLERK
To: Linford, Tera
Subject: FW: Seattle Times Editorial
Date: Wednesday, April 21, 2021 8:02:54 AM

From: Patricia Sheffels [mailto:sheffels@comcast.net]
Sent: Tuesday, April 20, 2021 5:01 PM
To: OFFICE RECEPTIONIST, CLERK <SUPREME@COURTS.WA.GOV>
Subject: Seattle Times Editorial

External Email Warning! This email has originated from outside of the Washington State Courts Network. Do not click links or open attachments unless you recognize the sender, are expecting the email, and know the content is safe. If a link sends you to a website where you are asked to validate using your Account and Password, DO NOT DO SO! Instead, report the incident.

Dear Justices,

I read the recent Seattle Times editorial about having (non) quasi-lawyers to help those people who do not need or cannot afford lawyers. If the medical profession can have qualified physicians assistants help those who need them, then the legal profession can and should follow suit. If the court rules against them it just seems you are protecting a closed system where justice and fairness are only there for the well off.

Yours truly,
Pat Sheffels