Please do not approve District and Municipal Court Judges Association (DMCJA) proposed changes to CrRLJ 3.3 and CrRLJ 3.4. Requiring those accused of misdemeanor crimes to appear in court in person multiple times puts an undue burden on poor and working people who must miss work or school, find childcare, and afford transportation. It increases criminalization of poverty by resulting in increased warrants for missed court appearances. Please do not make these changes.

Sincerely,
Dr. Ziadee Cambier
