RE: Comment in Support of APR 11 Suggested Amendment

A Law Clerk Program tutor instructs and guides a law clerk's learning, covering six subjects per year, developing, and administering an exam each month. In addition, tutors provide a minimum of three hours of personal supervision to the law clerk each week. Personal supervision includes, but is not limited to, discussion of the law, recitation of cases and critical analysis of written assignments. The Law Clerk Board is in support of the MCLE Board's proposed amendment to APR 11 to allow APR 6 Law Clerk Program tutors to receive MCLE credit for their time and effort in teaching and administering legal material each month.
