I live in Snohomish county. I am a mother of 5 and live in a large city. I am astounded that anyone would consider public defender quotas as a solution to case load. There are so many people who would be negatively impacted by criminals being let out of jail because they can't find a lawyer for them. This is already happening and now you want to make it worse!? What?! How about hire more public defenders. How about creating jobs with the taxes we pay. Jobs like public defenders! You can do better than that. It wouldn't pass a vote so you should not do it. That would destroy what little we have left of a judicial system in WA state! Do better or get out of our judicial system. Don't destroy my state. Thanks.
