Please consider how your retirement will look when you or your loved ones will be at risk in every activity you pursue. Unless of course, you don't plan on retiring in the state of Washington.

I believe it is obvious and absolutely unconscionable to allow the implementation of any laws that would pay criminals or to release alleged criminals without prosecution. Everyone knows the only deterrent to crime is actually pain and suffering. I don't want my grandmother or my grandchildren to suffer at the hands of criminals that will be released because of these ill thought laws.

Trim the fat and pay the public defenders a fair wage.

Thank you to all who serve the public good!

Sincerely, Tim Johnson
(a life long resident and business owner who WILL move out of state if lawlessnss becomes the norm)
