Good morning,

I am e-mailing to provide my objection to the amendment to CrR/CrRLJ 8.3 proposed by The Public Defender Organizations to remove language from these rules that requires “prejudice to the rights of the accused which materially affect the accused’s rights to a fair trial.”

I object to this amendment as it unnecessarily broadens the rules and would result in disparate outcomes because it invites judges to exercise their personal belief and definition of fairness in deciding such a dismissal.

Thank you,

Jason Greenjay
