GR 9 COVER SHEET

Suggested Amendments to

RULES FOR ENFORCEMENT OF LAWYER CONDUCT (ELC)

Rule 2.14(d)

A. Proponent: Disciplinary Advisory Round Table

B. Spokespersons:

Anne Seidel, member, Disciplinary Advisory Round Table, anne@anneseidel.com, (206) 284-2282

Darlene Neumann, Staff Liaison, Disciplinary Advisory Round Table, Washington State Bar Association, darlenen@wsba.org, (206) 733-5923

C. Purpose: The suggested amendment adds an exception to ELC 2.14(d) to allow a former member of the Board of Governor to represent individuals in pending disciplinary proceedings or grievances after leaving office under certain criteria.

ELC 2.14 restricts current Board of Governor members, Association officers, the Executive Director, Disciplinary Board members, and hearing officers from advising or representing individuals in pending or likely disciplinary grievances or proceedings while serving in that capacity. After leaving office, the former officeholders are further prohibited from representing individuals in pending disciplinary grievances or proceedings for three years. ELC 2.14(b). The rule provides an exception for former officeholders to serve as appointed disability counsel. ELC 2.14(d).

Under the amendment, a former Board of Governor member would not be subject to the three-year prohibition on representing individuals after leaving office if: 1) the former BOG member represented at least 10 respondents in disciplinary proceedings or grievances before taking office, and 2) the former Board of Governors member is prohibited from involvement with decisions or actions of the Board related to functions under the ELC for three years after BOG service ends.

BOG members who routinely represent respondents in disciplinary matters may be disincentivized from serving on the Board of Governors because doing so would prevent them from providing services in their area of practice during their three years of service on the Board and for three years after departing office. In the event an experienced respondents counsel does choose to serve, the rule has an unnecessarily severe impact on the pool of available lawyers who do such work in Washington State.

The rule serves important purposes related to the integrity of the discipline system, such as minimizing the risk of influence peddling and cronyism. But those purposes are less weighty when a lawyer joins the Board of Governors with meaningful prior experience serving as counsel in the discipline system. In such cases, it is unlikely that the lawyer is seeking office in order to gain undeserved credibility as a lawyer in discipline matters and then peddle that influence after leaving office.

For this reason, the suggested amendment applies only to former BOG members with substantial experience representing respondents prior to being elected. Furthermore, the risk of cronyism is addressed because such lawyers would be prohibited from lobbying the BOG on issues related to disciplinary functions for three years after leaving office to minimize the potential for exertion of undue influence on former Board-member colleagues.

SUGGESTED AMENDMENTS TO ELC 2.14
RESTRICTIONS ON REPRESENTING OR ADVISING RESPONDENTS OR GRIEVANTS

1 (a) Current Officeholders. Association officers and Executive Director, Board of 2 Governors members, Disciplinary Board members, and hearing officers, while serving in
3 that capacity, cannot knowingly advise or represent individuals regarding pending or 4 likely disciplinary grievances or proceedings, other than advising a person of the 5 availability of grievance procedures.

6 (b) Former Officeholders. After leaving office, Association officers and Executive
7 Director, Board of Governors members, Disciplinary Board members, and hearing
8 officers cannot represent individuals in pending disciplinary grievances or proceedings
9 until three years have expired after departure from office.

10 (c) Other Volunteers. Conflicts Review Officers, Conflicts Review Officers pro
11 tempore, adjunct disciplinary counsel, adjunct review committee members and 12 members pro tempore of the Board are subject to the restrictions on advising and 13 representing individuals set forth in this rule only while serving in that capacity.

14 (d) ~~Appointed Disability Counsel.~~ Exceptions. The prohibition in subsection (b) of 15 this rule on representing individuals after leaving office does not prevent:

16 (1) a lawyer from serving as appointed counsel under rule 8.3(d)(3); or

17 (2) a former Board of Governors member from representing individuals in pending
18 disciplinary proceedings or grievances after leaving office provided that:

19 (a) the former member represented at least 10 respondents in disciplinary 20 proceedings or grievances prior to taking office, and

1 (b) for three years after leaving office, the former member does not participate in
2 or seek to influence a decision or action of the Board of Governors related to functions
3 under these rules.
