ADMONITION

(a) By a Review Committee.

(1) A review committee may issue an admonition when investigation of a grievance shows misconduct.

(2) A respondent lawyer may protest the review committee's prehearing issuance of an admonition by filing a notice to that effect with the Clerk within 30 days of service of the admonition. Upon receipt of a timely protest, the admonition is rescinded, and the grievance is deemed ordered to hearing. A rescinded admonition is of no effect and may not be introduced into evidence in any disciplinary proceeding or appeal.

(b) Following a Hearing. A hearing officer may recommend that a respondent receive an admonition following a hearing.

(c) By Stipulation. The parties may stipulate to an admonition under rule 9.1.

(d) Effect. An admonition is a permanent discipline record and is admissible in subsequent disciplinary or disability proceedings involving the respondent.

(e) Action on Board Review. Upon review under Title 11, the Board may dismiss, issue an admonition, or impose sanctions or other remedies under rule 13.1.

(f) Signing of Admonition. The review committee chair signs an admonition issued by a review committee. The Disciplinary Board Chair or the Chair's designee signs all other admonitions.
