(b) The Guardian ad Litem and/or Guardian shall also submit a Notice of Loss of Voting Rights to the Court that shall include the name, address, and date of birth of the incapacitated person and that shall direct the Clerk to forward the Notice of Loss of Voting Rights to the County Auditor. (see Form LAR-A).

(c) If the guardianship is terminated by a determination of competency of the individual, the Court shall direct the Clerk to send to the County Auditor a certified copy of the Order Restoring Voting Rights including the same personal identifiers as the Notice of Loss of voting Rights.

(d) Clerk will determine whether Notice of Loss of voting Rights has been filed. If notice has not been filed, clerk shall complete a notice using information from guardianship petition and/or guardian ad litem report.

(e) Clerk will forward Notice of Loss of voting Rights to the County Auditor.

(f) Copy of the notice will be placed in the file.

(g) If the guardianship is terminated based on the court's finding that the ward is now competent to handle affairs, the Clerk will send a certified copy of the Order Restoring Voting Rights (see Form LAR-B) to the County Auditor.

II. Grievances as to guardians ad litem.

(a) Scope. This rule applies to grievances from litigants, witnesses, attorneys, or other persons regarding guardians ad litem (GAL) and court-appointed special advocates (CASA) appointed pursuant to Titles 11, 13, and 26 RCW.

(b) Form. All grievances regarding the qualifications, conduct or performance of a GAL or CASA must be in writing, submitted to the Presiding Judge of the Superior Court.

(c) Assignment for investigation. The Presiding Judge shall promptly designate a judicial officer to investigate a grievance. The judicial officer assigned may be any judge or court commissioner, whether or not said officer is otherwise involved in a pending case from which the grievance arises. When it is necessary, in the judgment of the Presiding Judge, to appoint an investigator who is not a judicial officer, or who is not otherwise associated with the Court, the Presiding Judge may appoint any qualified person to investigate the grievance.

(d) Initial determination of merit. The investigating judicial officer shall initially determine whether or not the grievance raises issues of arguable merit. In making this determination, the officer shall consider whether the grievance alleges, and whether there is evidence to support, that the GAL or CASA has:

(1) violated an applicable code of conduct;

(2) misrepresented his or her qualifications to serve in the appointed capacity;

(3) breached a duty of confidentiality;

(3) falsified or mischaracterized information in testimony or a report to the Court;

(4) failed to report abuse or neglect of a child;

(5) communicated with a judicial officer ex parte in contravention of law;

(6) purported to represent the court in a public forum without prior approval of the Court;

(7) violated state or local laws, rules, or policies in the capacity as GAL or CASA;

(8) failed to complete assigned duties with reasonable diligence; or

(9) taken or failed to take any other action which would reasonably place in question the GAL or CASA's fitness to serve.

(e) Meritless claims. Upon determining that the grievance raises no issues of arguable merit, the investigating judicial officer shall decline to further investigate and shall so inform the grievant and the Presiding Judge in writing.

(f) Claims of arguable merit. Upon determining that the grievance raises issues of arguable merit, the investigating judicial officer shall request a written response from any GAL or CASA involved therein. The GAL or CASA shall submit a written response within 14 days of the request, unless additional time is allowed upon request to the investigating judicial officer. The investigating judicial officer may make any other contacts, inquiries, or reviews he or she deems necessary to resolution of any issue of arguable merit. He or she shall submit a written report of findings of fact and conclusions of the investigation to all other judicial officers of the court. Upon the majority vote of said judicial officers, a final written report will be provided to the grievant and to every GAL and CASA involved.

(g) Assignments during investigation. Unless expressly ordered otherwise upon the recommendation of the investigating judicial officer, the Court shall make no additional assignments of a GAL or CASA named in a grievance until completion of the investigation. The investigating judicial officer may recommend to the Presiding Judge that a GAL or CASA be ordered to perform no additional services pursuant to any existing appointment until completion of the investigation.

(h) Time to complete investigation. Unless otherwise directed by the Presiding Judge for good cause, investigations under this rule shall be completed within 60 days of receipt of a grievance.

(i) Action after investigation. A final written report by a majority of the judicial officers of the Court may order:

(1) that a GAL or CASA remain on the court's registry with no further action taken;

(2) that a GAL or CASA be suspended from the registry pending completion of designated remedial measures;

(3) that a GAL or CASA be removed from the court's registry; or

(4) any other measures necessary to resolution of issues raised in the grievance. If removal from the registry is ordered, the court shall send notice thereof to the Administrative Office of the Courts.

(j) Confidentiality. A record of all written complaints or grievances regarding any GAL or CASA shall be maintained by the Court. Grievances shall be confidential until completion of any investigation conducted pursuant to this rule. A record of any action ordered by the Court in response to a grievance shall be placed in the GAL or CASA's file.

[Effective Sept. 1, 2016.]

LAR 6.
JURY SELECTION

(a) Panel. The Jury Administrator will randomly assign sequential numbers, beginning with "1," to all prospective jurors who have timely appeared for trial, and will cause them to be seated in the courtroom in that order when directed by the trial judge to do so. The judge and counsel will be provided with a roster of the panel as seated.

(b) Examination. Unless otherwise ordered by the judge presiding at trial, juries will be selected after panel examination. The judge will conduct orientation and general questioning of the panel. Thereafter, counsel will, in turn, be permitted to question the panel, or individual members thereof, for a stated period of time set by the judge. The judge may allow a second period of questioning by each side. For good cause shown, the judge may extend the period of questioning, or allow additional rounds, on motion of a party.

(c) Challenges. Challenges for cause shall be made openly or at sidebar, as the judge may direct. After examination of the panel, counsel will, in turn, exercise peremptory challenges by striking names from a roster of those panel members not previously dismissed. After peremptory challenges, the remaining unchallenged jurors with the twelve (or, in appropriate cases, six) lowest roster numbers shall be seated as the jury. The remaining juror(s) with the next lowest roster number(s) will be seated as the alternate juror(s).

LCR 7.
PLEADINGS

(a) Time Limits. (1) Civil, paternity, and domestic/family law and motion dockets are limited to matters requiring no more than ten minutes per side. Matters expected to exceed that limitation must be specially set by the Court Administrator.

(b) Motion Timelines. These timelines apply to all matters on the domestic and family law docket, the dependency docket, the paternity docket, and the civil docket.

(1) The moving party shall file and serve all motion documents at least nine (9) court days prior to the date noted for argument on the motion. Any untimely motion will not be placed on the Court's docket.

(2) The responsive documents must be filed and served at least four (4) court days prior to the date noted for argument on the motion.

(3) Any optional strict reply documents must be filed and served at least two (2) court days prior to the date noted for argument on the motion.

(4) In calculating time in paragraphs (b)(1) – (b)(3) above, court days are days the Court is open for business and do not include any days the Court is closed, such as weekends and court holidays. For example, for matters that are scheduled to be heard on a Friday docket, the motion and documents must be served and filed on the Monday of the week preceding the Friday for which the matter is noted, so long as there is no court holiday in that time period. If a single court holiday falls within the nine (9) days, the documents would need to be filed and served two (2) Fridays before the Friday on which the scheduled motion is to be heard.

(5) In emergency situations, for reason of judicial economy, or for other good reason, a judicial officer may consider and grant an ex parte motion for order shortening time to note a matter on a docket or otherwise allow an untimely response or reply. It is preferred that any such motion and order to shorten time be presented to the judicial officer presiding over the docket. If said judicial officer is unavailable, another judicial officer may consider the motion.

(c) Strict Reply Documents. Reply documents are optional and must only reply to issues raised in the responsive documents. Reply documents cannot raise new issues or they are subject to being stricken.

(d) Motions for Temporary Orders in Family Law Proceedings. Any party may file a motion for temporary orders pending trial.

(1) Form of pleadings, basis and limitations.

(ii) Basis. Evidence, including written evidence in affidavits and declarations by the parties and witnesses, must comply with the rules of evidence.

(iii) Children's Statements. Declarations by minors are disfavored.

(iv) Page Limitations. Absent prior authorization of the court, the entirety of all declarations and affidavits from the parties and non-expert witnesses in support of motions (except financial declarations, financial documents and sealed source documents), shall be limited to a sum total of twenty (20) pages.

Absent prior authorization of the Court, the entirety of all declarations and affidavits from the parties and non-expert witnesses (except financial declarations, financial documents and sealed source documents), submitted in response to motions shall not exceed twenty (20) pages.

The entirety of all declarations and affidavits submitted in strict reply to the response shall not exceed four (4) pages.

Exhibits to any declarations shall count toward the above page limits.

Declarations, affidavits and reports from the Family Court Investigator, GAL, CPS or law enforcement shall not count toward the page limit. Declarations in support of Parenting Plans shall not count toward the page limit but shall not exceed three (3) pages.

(v) Violations of this rule. If the Court finds that one or more of the parties violated this rule, the Court may, in its discretion, assess terms, strike or continue the matter, or refuse to consider the materials that violate this rule.

[Amended effective September 1, 2019, amended and re-numbered effective September 1, 2020; sections (e) (f) and (g) removed and re-numbered as LAR 8, 9, and 10, effective September 1, 2021.]

If the conference is expected to exceed 60 minutes, the parties shall obtain a specially-set time from the Court Administrator. Counsel for the parties shall attend. The conference will address administrative matters relating to the trial, and resolve motions in limine and other motions entertained by the Court.

Civil bench trials may be preceded by a conference on request of a party or on the Court's motion.

[Adopted April 1, 1997; amended 2005; amended, re-numbered and re-codified effective September 1, 2012.]

LCR 16A.
PARENTING SEMINARS

(a) Cases Affected. Pursuant to RCW 26.12.170, this rule applies to all actions in which the Court is petitioned to adopt a parenting plan or residential schedule involving minor children, and, if ordered by the Court, to an action in which modification of such a plan or schedule is sought.

(b) Seminar Required. The judges of this Court shall, by administrative order maintained in the records of the Clerk, from time to time designate one or more providers of parenting seminars. Each party who is a parent shall, within thirty days after initiating or being served with initial documents in a case covered by this rule, contact a designated provider to schedule attendance at a parenting seminar. Prior to trial in such a case, or prior to entry of a final parenting plan or residential schedule if no trial is held, each such party shall attend and complete a parenting seminar, and file proof thereof with the Court.

(c) Exemption and Enforcement. A party may seek exemption from the requirements of this rule on the basis of substantial hardship, established by motion of the party supported by written declaration or oral testimony. A party who has completed a parenting seminar, pursuant to this rule or otherwise, within twenty-four months before institution of the present action is, upon filing proof thereof, also exempt from part (b) of this rule, unless otherwise ordered by the Court. Unless exempted, a party who fails to comply may be sanctioned by civil contempt remedies, by an order striking pleadings, or in such other manner as the Court deems appropriate.

(b) Contents of Statement. (1) Assets. The statement shall sequentially number and identify each asset with sufficient particularity to distinguish it from other assets of the same type. As to each asset, the statement shall set forth, unless unknown to the party, the following information: date, manner and cost of acquisition; the party's characterization of the asset as community (or "shared") or separate property, and if separate, the basis for that claim; present fair market value; and proposed distribution by the court. The statement shall separately identify any asset in the possession of either party claimed to be the property of a third person, in whole or in part.

(2) Debts. The statement shall sequentially number and specifically identify (including creditor and account number) each debt claimed to be owed by either party or both. As to each debt, the statement shall set forth, unless unknown to the party, the following information: the date(s) on which the debt was incurred, the purpose for which it was incurred, any security given for the debt; the balance owed at the time of trial and at the time of separation; payments made by either party after separation; whether, and to what extent, the debt is claimed to be the separate or individual debt of either party; and the proposed distribution by the Court.

(c) Persons Attending. The attorney in charge of each party's case shall attend the settlement conference. The parties to a domestic case shall attend the conference; in other civil cases, the parties, or persons with settlement authority for a party, shall be available, and the judicial officer conducting the conference shall decide whether the parties shall be present in the conference room. When the defense of a party is provided by an insurer, a representative of the insurer with authority to bind the insurer to a settlement, must be in attendance or immediately available by telephone to the attorney for that party. Attendance of any party or representative may be excused for good cause shown.

(d) Preconference Submittal. At least two days before the date set for the settlement conference, the attorney, or pro se party, personally in charge of each party's case shall present to the judicial officer conducting the conference a letter succinctly addressing those issues required to be addressed. This Preconference Submittal letter shall be delivered to the Court Administrator and shall not be filed or disclosed to the other side.

(e) Privilege. Settlement conferences shall, in all respects, be privileged proceedings. The case shall initially be called on the record and the parties present identified. In civil cases other than those specified in subsection (c) the plaintiff shall within 10 days of serving all defendants with the summons and complaint, or within 10 days of filing the summons and complaint, whichever is later, give all defendants notice of a status conference to be held on a Friday civil motion docket at 9:00 a.m. no sooner than 45 days and no later than 90 days after service of the summons and complaint on all parties. Proof of service of the notice shall be filed with the court. The purpose of the status conference is to schedule deadlines for completion of all measures necessary to prepare the case for trial. The status conference shall be stricken if the parties file a stipulated status conference statement (Form LR8-B) at least 7 calendar days before the status conference. The status conference shall also be stricken if only one party files a status conference statement. The court shall adopt the status conference statement unless otherwise ordered. Civil cases will not be set for trial unless the parties comply with this rule.

(b) Scheduling Order. Following the status conference, or upon receipt of a status conference statement agreed to by all parties, the Court will issue a Scheduling Order in the form appended hereto as Form LR 8-D. Deadlines established in the Scheduling Order may be extended by stipulation of the parties only upon leave of the Court. The Court may, upon motion of a party made before expiration of a deadline, extend any deadline in the Scheduling Order for good cause shown. The parties shall submit a proposed Amended Scheduling Order with any such motion. It is the responsibility of the parties to prepare the Amended Scheduling Order for the Court to review and enter.

(b) Re-application. When an order has been applied for and denied in whole or in part, or has been granted conditionally and the condition has not been performed, the same application for an order may not be presented to a different judicial officer unless that officer is clearly advised of the fact of the previous denial or unfulfilled condition.

LCR 60.
MOTIONS FOR REVISION

(a) Deadline for Hearing Motion. A motion for revision of an order entered by the Court Commissioner must be filed with the Clerk within ten (10) days of the entry of the order from which the motion arises. At the time it is filed, a motion for revision shall be noted for hearing on a normal Friday civil motion docket. A revision motion not heard within thirty (30) days after filing shall be deemed denied unless the Court extends such time for hearing for good cause.

(b) Form of Motion. The motion must clearly identify the order from which revision is sought, specify those portions of the order allegedly in error, identify the documents that were submitted to the Court Commissioner for hearing on the ruling from which revision is requested, and include a summary of the legal and factual grounds upon which the moving party relies. At the time the motion is filed, a copy of the order from which revision is sought, along with a copy of all documents relied upon by the Court Commissioner, shall be submitted to the Court Administrator as a working copy for the judge who hears the motion on revision.

(c) Transcript Required. At least five (5) court days before the hearing on the revision motion, the moving party shall file a written transcript of the hearing before the Court Commissioner, serve a copy on all opposing parties, and provide a copy to the judge who will hear the motion. The person preparing the transcript shall certify, under penalty of perjury, that it is an accurate transcription of the record.

(d) Confirmation. Motions for revision must be confirmed with the Court Administrator not later than four (4) court days before the date and time set for the hearing. Once the hearing is confirmed, the motion may not be stricken or continued without approval of the judge assigned to hear the motion. The Court shall strike unconfirmed motions from the calendar.

(e) Stay of Court Commissioner's Order. The filing of a motion for revision does not stay the Commissioner's order. The moving party may seek a stay of said order from the Court Commissioner who signed the order.

[Amended effective September 1, 2020; amended effective September 1, 2021.]

LCR 70.

(b) Service. Unless otherwise authorized by order of the Court, or by the express terms of a statute under which the contempt motion is brought, or by written stipulation of the parties, the order to show cause, together with the motion and supporting declarations or other materials, must be personally served on the responding party.

(c) Failure to Appear. At the hearing, if the responding party fails to appear and upon proof of service of the pleadings required by this rule, the Court may order arrest of the responding party. Other requested remedies may also be ordered upon default, even if a warrant is not ordered.

LOCAL RULES FOR MANDATORY ARBITRATION (LRMA)

LRMA 1.1.
PURPOSE OF RULES - OTHER RULES - DEFINITIONS

(a) Purpose and Scope. The Purpose of these Local Rules for Mandatory Arbitration is to supplement the Mandatory Arbitration Rules (MAR) adopted by the Supreme Court in order to provide a simplified, economical procedure for the prompt and equitable resolution of disputes involving claims of $100,000 or less. THESE RULES MUST BE READ AND APPLIED IN CONJUCTION WITH THE MANDATORY ARBITRATION RULES.

These rules are not intended to address every question which may arise during arbitration, and thus leave considerable discretion to the arbitrator. Arbitrators should liberally employ such discretion in order to assure that hearings are informal and expeditious, consistent with the purposes of the statutes and rules.

(b) Administrator. As used in these rules, "Administrator" means the employee of the Grant County Superior Court who may, from time to time, be assigned by the judges thereof the position and responsibilities of Arbitration Administrator.

[Amended effective September 1, 2018.]

LRMA 1.2.
AMOUNT IN CONTROVERSY

Pursuant to RCW 7.06.020, civil matters shall be subject to mandatory arbitration if the amount claimed by any party does not exceed $100,000 exclusive of attorney fees, interest and costs, or if the parties waive claims in excess thereof for the purposes of arbitration.

[Amended effective September 1, 2018.]

LRMA 1.3.
MOTIONS

All motions before the court relating to mandatory arbitration shall be noted on the civil motions calendar in accordance with LR 7, except as otherwise provided in these arbitration rules.

[Amended 1990; amended effective September 1, 2012.]

LRMA 2.1.
TRANSFER TO ARBITRATION

(a) Statement of Arbitrability. In every civil case to which the scheduling procedure set forth in LR 26F applies, each party filing and serving a status conference statement (Form LR 8-B) shall indicate thereon whether or not the case is subject to mandatory arbitration. Alternatively, any party who asserts that a case is subject to mandatory arbitration may at any time file and serve on all other parties a statement of arbitrability.

(b) Response. A party who disputes another party's assertion that the case is or is not subject to mandatory arbitration shall so advise the court in any one of these ways: (1) by so indicating in the status conference statement (Form LR 8-B); (2) by so indicating at the commencement of the status conference required by LR 26F(a); or (3) by serving and filing a written response to another party's statement of arbitrability within 14 days of service thereof.

(c) Amendment. A party may amend a statement of arbitrability, response, or other assertion regarding arbitrability of the case at any time before assignment of an arbitrator, and thereafter only upon leave of the court for good cause shown.

(d) Failure to File. If no response or other dispute regarding arbitrability is filed or brought to the attention of the court as provided in this rule, then a statement that the case is subject to mandatory arbitration will be deemed correct.

(e) By Stipulation. A case in which all parties file a stipulation to arbitrate under MAR 8.1 will be transferred to arbitration regardless of the nature of the case or the amount in controversy.

[Amended 1990; amended effective September 1, 2012.]

LRMA 2.3.
ASSIGNMENT TO ARBITRATOR

(a) Generally - Stipulations. When a case is set for arbitration, a list of five proposed arbitrators will be furnished to the parties. A master list of arbitrators will be made available on request. The parties are encouraged to stipulate to an arbitrator. In the absence of a stipulation, the arbitrator will be chosen from among the five proposed arbitrators in the manner set forth in this rule.

(b) Response by Parties. Each party may, within 14 days after a list of proposed arbitrators is furnished to the parties, nominate one or two arbitrators and strike two arbitrators from the list. If both parties respond, an arbitrator nominated by both parties will be appointed. If no arbitrator has been nominated by both parties, the Administrator will randomly appoint an arbitrator from among those not stricken by either party.

(c) Response by Only One Party. If only one party responds within 14 days, the Administrator will appoint an arbitrator nominated by that party.

(d) No Response. If no party responds within 14 days, the Administrator will randomly appoint one of the five proposed arbitrators.

(e) Additional Parties. If there are more than two adverse parties, all represented by different counsel, two additional proposed arbitrators shall be added to the list for each additional party so represented with the procedures for selection set forth in this rule to be applied. The number of adverse parties shall be determined by the Administrator, subject to review by the Presiding Judge.

[Amended effective September 1, 2012.]

LRMA 3.1.
QUALIFICATIONS

(a) Arbitration Panel. There shall be a panel of arbitrators in such numbers as the Superior Court Judges may from time to time determine. A person desiring to serve as an arbitrator shall complete an information sheet on the form prescribed by the Court. A list of the names of arbitrators available to hear cases, and the information sheets filed by them, will be available for public inspection at the Administrator's office. The oath of office, in a form prescribed by the Court, must be completed and filed prior to an applicant being placed on the arbitration panel.

(b) Refusal - Disqualification. The appointment of an arbitrator is subject to the right of that person to decline to serve. An arbitrator must notify the Administrator immediately if declining to serve or if any cause exists for the arbitrator's disqualification from the case upon any of the grounds of interest, relationship, bias, or prejudice set forth in the Code of Judicial Conduct, Rule 2.11 governing the disqualification of judges. If disqualified, the arbitrator will immediately return all materials in a case to the Administrator.

[Amended effective September 1, 2012.]

LRMA 4.2.
DISCOVERY

In determining when additional discovery beyond that directly authorized by MAR 4.2 is reasonably necessary, the arbitrator shall balance the benefits of discovery against the burdens and expenses. The arbitrator shall consider the nature and complexity of the case, the amount in controversy, values at stake, the discovery that has already occurred, the burdens on the party from whom discovery is sought, and the possibility of unfair surprise which may result if discovery is restricted. Authorized discovery shall be conducted in accordance with the civil rules except that motions concerning discovery shall be resolved by the arbitrator. Nothing in this rule shall prohibit the arbitrator from considering, in ruling on the merits of the case, any other discovery devices which may have been completed prior to assignment of the case to the arbitrator.

[Amended effective September 1, 2012.]

LRMA 5.1.
NOTICE OF HEARING - TIME AND PLACE - CONTINUANCE

An arbitration hearing may be scheduled at any reasonable time and place chosen by the arbitrator. The arbitrator may grant a continuance without court order. The parties may stipulate to a continuance only with leave of the arbitrator. The arbitrator shall give reasonable notice of the hearing date and any continuance to the Administrator.

[Amended effective September 1, 2012.]

LRMA 5.2.
PREHEARING STATEMENT OF PROOF - DOCUMENTS FILED WITH THE COURT

The statements of witnesses and exhibits required by MAR 5.2 shall be simultaneously exchanged by all parties. In addition to the requirements of MAR 5.2, each party shall also furnish the arbitrator with copies of pleadings and other documents contained in the court file which that party deems relevant. The Court file shall remain in the custody of the County Clerk.

[Amended effective September 1, 2012.]

LRMA 5.3.
CONDUCT OF HEARING - WITNESSES - RULES OF EVIDENCE

(a) Oath or Affirmation. The arbitrator shall place a witness under oath or affirmation, substantially in the following form, before the witness presents testimony: "Do you solemnly swear or affirm, under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington, that the testimony you give in this matter will be the truth?"

(b) Recording. The hearing may be recorded electronically or otherwise by any party at his or her expense, providing that the means of recording do not interfere with conduct of the hearing.

(c) Rules of Evidence Generally. The Rules of Evidence, to the extent determined by the arbitrator to be applicable, should be liberally construed to promote justice and economical dispute resolution.

[Amended effective September 1, 2012.]

LRMA 6.1.
FORM AND CONTENT OF AWARD

(a) Form. The arbitrator's award shall be prepared on a form prescribed by the Court.

(b) Exhibits. All exhibits offered during the arbitration hearing shall be filed with the Clerk at the time of filing the award.

[Amended effective September 1, 2012.]

LRMA 6.2.
FILING OF AWARD - EXTENSION

A request by the arbitrator for extension of the time for filing an award under MAR 6.2 may be presented ex parte to the Presiding Judge. The arbitrator shall give all parties notice of any extension granted.

[Amended effective September 1, 2012.]

LRMA 7.1.
REQUEST FOR TRIAL DE NOVO - TRIAL SETTING

Any party desiring trial de novo after an arbitration award must give notice thereof as provided in MAR 7.1(a) notwithstanding that the case is not ripe for trial setting under LR 40. If a trial date has been assigned prior to the filing of an arbitration award, it shall remain in place if a request for trial de novo is filed pursuant to MAR 7.1(a), and shall be stricken if no such request is filed within the time permitted by MAR 7.1(a).

LOCAL RULES FOR MANDATORY MEDIATION (LRMM)

LRMM 1.
Grant County Superior Court Rule for Mediation

(a) Mediation Required. Contested issues in family law cases are subject to mandatory mediation in accordance with this rule. No trial or hearing shall be conducted to resolve any such issue until either (1) the parties have engaged in mediation; or (2) the court has, for good cause, waived the mediation requirement of this rule. Attorneys for the parties may attend mediation proceedings. Mediation proceedings must be completed prior to a note for trial setting being filed. Nothing in this rule shall be interpreted to require mediation of disputes concerning child support, and mediation shall not be required in such disputes.

(b) Family Law Cases.

(1) Family law cases subject to mandatory mediation under this rule are as follows:

a. Dissolution or declaration of invalidity of marriage or domestic partnership.

b. Legal separation.

c. Child custody proceedings involving parents, presumed or putative parents, de facto parents, or non-parents (after a finding adequate cause when required).

d. Paternity cases after entry of a judgment determining parentage.

e. Proceedings to establish maintenance obligations.

f. Proceedings relating to the termination of marriage-like relationships.

(2) Unless otherwise ordered by the court, mediation under this rule is not required for the following cases or issues:

a. Dependency and termination cases.

b. Contempt proceedings regarding compliance with court orders.

c. Petitions for Domestic Violence Protection Orders.

d. Adoption proceedings.

e. Petitions for emancipation of a minor or for change of name.

f. Motions to waive the requirements of this rule for good cause.

(c) Contested Issues.

(1) Contested issues subject to mandatory mediation under this rule include the following:

a. Characterization, valuation and/or division of assets and debts.

b. Establishment of final parenting plan or residential schedule.

c. Modification of a final parenting plan or residential schedule after a finding of adequate cause.

d. Modification of a temporary parenting plan or residential schedule.

e. Establishment of maintenance (other than initial temporary order).

f. Modification of temporary or permanent maintenance order.

(2) Unless otherwise ordered by the court, contested issues subject to mandatory mediation under this rule do not include the following:

a. Entry of initial temporary support order.

b. Entry of initial temporary parenting plan or residential schedule.

c. Entry of other initial temporary orders, including restraining orders; orders for the use, possession, disposition or preservation of assets; orders allocating responsibility for debt service; and similar temporary orders.

(d) Waiver. On its own motion, or on motion of a party, the court may waive the mediation requirements or time limits of this rule for good cause. Good cause will be presumed in cases where mediation would require a party subjected to domestic violence to meet in close proximity with a perpetrator of that violence.

(e) Refusal to Mediate. If either party refuses to mediate without first having sought or obtained an order waiving mediation, the other party may bring a motion to compel the refusing party to engage in mediation. At the hearing regarding the motion to compel mediation, the court may, in its discretion, assess terms, including attorney's fees. In the event that an order compelling mediation is granted, and the party against whom the order is entered still refuses to mediate, then the court may, upon proper motion, grant such further relief as the court deems appropriate, including any relief authorized by Civil Rule 37(b) of the Superior Court Civil Rules for the State of Washington.
[Amended effective September 1, 2018.]

LRMM 2.
MEDIATOR

(a) Appointment of Mediator. The parties may stipulate to appointment of a person to perform the mediation required by this rule by filing with the court a written stipulation including the name, address and date of appointment of the mediator. In the absence of stipulation, the court will, on its own motion or the motion of a party, appoint a mediator. The person or organization appointed by the parties or the court shall immediately be notified of the appointment. Any person so appointed may decline the appointment and promptly notify the parties and the Court thereof.

(b) Compensation. The mediator shall set a reasonable fee for mediation. The parties shall promptly pay the mediator's fee in the proportions agreed by the parties or, in the absence of agreement, as ordered by the Court.

(c) Authority and Duties. The mediator shall set the time, place, manner, and duration of mediation, which may be adjourned from time to time to facilitate resolution of issues. Within seven (7) days after completion of mediation, the mediator shall file with the Court, and provide copies to the parties and attorneys who participated in the mediation, a declaration setting forth (1) the date(s) of mediation; (2) the contested issues mediated; and (3) the manner in which any party failed, in the judgment of the mediator, to participate in good faith.

(d) Mediator as Witness. The mediator may not be subpoenaed to testify, nor shall the mediator agree or volunteer to testify, in any discovery procedure or court hearing regarding the statements,

The parties shall timely submit any additional materials requested by the mediator. Materials submitted to the mediator shall not be filed with the Clerk of the Court.

(b) Good Faith Obligation. The parties shall mediate in good faith. A party may be sanctioned for failing to mediate in good faith; sanctions may include assessment of all costs of mediation, an award of attorney fees and costs to a party participating in good faith, or other sanctions ordered by the Court.

(c) Appearance. For good cause shown, the mediator may permit any participant in mediation to appear by telephone. At the mediator's discretion, persons other than the parties and their attorneys may be permitted to attend the mediation, provided, that a party seeking permission for a non-party to attend shall give reasonable advance written notice of the request to every opposing party.

(d) Agreement. Any agreement between the parties reached during the mediation process shall be reduced to writing before conclusion of the mediation and shall be endorsed by all parties, participating attorneys, and the mediator. The mediator may, upon notice to a person participating by telephone, endorse the agreement on behalf of that person. The mediator will cause a copy of the endorsed agreement to be provided to each party before conclusion of the mediation.

[Adopted May 27, 2012.]

LRMM 4.
CONFIDENTIALITY
